SECTION 3 -- MEDICAL INFORMATION
Full Name: Marcus Renee Giles
Date of Birth: March 18, 2021

Blood Type: A positive
Known Allergies: None documented
Food Restrictions: None
Current Medical Conditions: Mild atopic dermatitis (eczema), managed topically Medications: None prescription. Eczema management as follows.
Apply CeraVe Moisturizing Cream (white tub, in bathroom cabinet) after baths and any time skin appears dry or red, especially at the creases of elbows and behind the knees.
If a flare appears (raised, red, itchy patches), apply 1% hydrocortisone cream (in bathroom medicine cabinet, labeled) twice daily for up to 5 days. If no improvement in 3 days, notify Shanice.
Use only fragrance-free detergent for Marcus's clothes and bedding (Seventh Generation Free and Clear is what we use).
Vaccinations: All vaccinations current as of October 2026. Maintained by Dr. Rachel M. Adams.
SECTION 4 -- HEALTHCARE PROVIDERS
Pediatrician: Dr. Rachel M. Adams, M.D., FAAP

Note: Six-month well-child visits. Last visit October 14, 2026. Next visit approximately April 2027.
Primary care (mother): Dr. Tamara Willis, West End Family Health Center, (860) 555-0245.
SECTION 5 -- DAILY CARE ROUTINES
Morning
Marcus wakes between 6:30 and 7:00 AM on his own. He likes a few minutes of quiet before coming to breakfast.
Breakfast: He eats well. Favorites are scrambled eggs, oatmeal with honey, toast with peanut butter, or rice and something from the previous night if available. He eats grapes and banana slices well.
Do not rush him at the table. He talks a lot and needs time.
School Days (while school year is in session)
Pickup is typically by Mary Claire at 3:30 PM. If someone other than Mary Claire or Shanice is picking him up, notify the school in writing by 9:00 AM that day. Contact Rose Delaney at the school front office: (860) 555-0300.
After School
Snack when he gets home. He prefers crackers, fruit, or leftover rice. Do not give him sugary snacks in the late afternoon or bedtime will be harder.
Screen time: 30 minutes maximum on the iPad (educational apps or Evergreen TV; no YouTube without Shanice's approval).
He will want to play. Legos, dinosaur figures, and books are his go-to. He is imaginative and does not need constant engagement.
Evening
Dinner around 6:00 PM if possible. He eats most things without complaint. He loves rice, chicken, potatoes, and mac and cheese.
Bath: 7:30 PM. Apply CeraVe moisturizer immediately after bath, while skin is still damp. This is important.
Bedtime routine: Bath, moisturizer, pajamas, 2 to 3 books, prayer together, lights out by 8:30 PM.
He has a nightlight in his room (plug-in on the right side of the dresser). Do not turn it off; he needs it.

He may ask for water after lights out. One cup is fine. After that, redirect to sleep.

SECTION 6 -- PREFERENCES AND COMFORT

Comfort items: Large dinosaur stuffed animal (T-rex named Rex) lives on his bed. He needs Rex at bedtime. Do not put Rex away.

Favorite books: Anything about dinosaurs; the National Geographic Kids series is his favorite.

Things that upset him: Loud unexpected sounds, being woken suddenly, running out of time on something before he is ready. Give 5-minute warnings before transitions.

Things that help when he is upset: A calm voice, acknowledging what he is feeling before redirecting, and giving him a moment to settle before asking him to do something new.

He responds to the phrase "hey buddy, let's take a breath." It is Shanice's phrase and he knows it.

SECTION 7 -- SCHOOL CONTACTS

School (through the 2025-2026 school year): Maple Hill Early Learning Center, Hartford, CT

School (2026-2027 school year onward): Assigned Hartford Public Schools neighborhood elementary, kindergarten

If there is a school emergency, the school will contact Shanice first, then Mary Claire.

If Mary Claire is picking Marcus up and there is any change to the plan, text Shanice AND Mary Claire both. Do not assume one will tell the other.

SECTION 8 -- NOTES FOR EXTENDED CARE (overnight or multi-day)

Mary Claire knows Marcus's full routine by heart. Defer to her judgment when Shanice is unavailable.

Marcus knows he is loved and safe at Mary Claire's and at Jason and Karen's. He has stayed overnight at both without difficulty.

If Marcus asks where his mom is: tell him the truth simply. "Mom is at work and she will be back." He understands.

He may be clingy the first evening. This is normal. Maintain the routine and he will settle.
